Exclusively for RWC2019 / Fact Sheet

TOKYO METROPOLITAN

No.	Major items	Minor items	Entry fields
1	Municipality	Host city name	Tokyo Metropolitan
2		Prefecture name	Tokyo Metropolitan
3		Population	13,921,329 people (estimate as of May 1, 2019)
4		Climate	The four seasons are as enjoyable in Tokyo as they are throughout most of Japan. The annual mean temperature of Tokyo is roughly 15°C. The temperature is highest in early August, and lowest in late January.
5		Major industries	Tokyo is a cosmopolitan city that is home to many foreign-owned companies, and an international business hub with a cluster of corporate headquarters. The metropolis is also home to a wealth of small and medium-sized enterprises in close contact with their communities, and all areas are alive with industrial activity in manufacturing, logistics, services, and more.
6		History	In 1868, Edo was renamed “Tokyo,” and Tokyo Prefecture was established. Through the 1964 Tokyo Olympics and other events, the urban area has developed into the national capital. The city will host its second Olympics in 2020.
7		Local specialties	Edo cut glass, Edo writing brushes, Edo hand-painted paper lanterns, Tokyo indigo-dyed summer kimono, and more
8		Rugby related information
9		Hashtags	#RWC2019、#counterball
10	About venues	Street address	376-3 Nishi machi, Chofu city, Tokyo pref.
11		Capacity	capacity 49,970 people
12		Year of completion	constructed in 2000, opened in 2001
13		Professional teams	FC Tokyo (Football J1 League)・Tokyo Verdy (Football J1 League)